Review of DRB Rules of Procedure and Conflict of Interest Policy:

The board completed its initial review of a draft of this policy, beginning with a review of the previous review work included in a draft attached to the 1-22-26 meeting minutes. This draft is based on a template developed by the state in the early 2000's and modified and adopted by the Starksboro DRB in 2007. The group reviewed the template against the 2007 version, and a similar version adopted by the Hinesburg DRB in 2015. A final draft based on this meeting will be presented at the next DRB meeting for adoption and signing.

Major discussion items:

There was an in-depth discussion of procedures to enter deliberative session, and whether they should by default be conducted in an open session or a closed session. The final draft will indicate that the board will vote by majority to enter closed deliberative session by default, with a unanimous vote required by the board to instead hold the session open in public.

Procedures on defining visitors vs. interested parties were discussed. The final draft will include an information sheet on the definition of interested parties that will be included with the hearing sign-in sheet to alert attendees about the requirements to attain interested party status in order to have the right of subsequent appeal. The board would not determine interested party status at the meeting; this determination would be made upon appeal.

Procedures on addressing any board member conflict-of-interest issues during a hearing were discussed. The final draft will include an option for the board to vote to require a member to recuse themselves if the need arises.

Other discussion items:

See the attached working draft dated 2/13/2026 for other modifications to the template version discussed by the board.

Minutes Review:

Minutes from 12-11-25 DRB Meeting (deferred from 1-22-26 meeting) were reviewed.

The following corrections were noted:

The date should be corrected to 12-11-2025 on document headers on pages 2-5.

Lindsay Hildebrand should be removed from the visitors list.

The case number and label for the deliberative session should be added to that motion.

Motion: L.McCarthy moved to accept the 12/11/2025 minutes with corrections noted.
A.Paquette seconded.

Vote: B. Campbell abstained as he was not in attendance. All others in attendance voted in favor

Review of 1-22-26 Minutes: Review was deferred to next meeting due to lack of a quorum of attending members.

Deliberative Session: E.Boardman moved to go into deliberative session at 8:54pm to discuss a previous decision condition. R.Warren seconded.

Vote: All in favor.

Motion: B.Campbell moved to adjourn at 9:30pm. T.Perry seconded.

Vote: All in favor.

2. A board member who has recused him or herself from a proceeding shall not sit with the board, deliberate with the board, or participate in that proceeding as a board member in any capacity.
3. If a previously unknown conflict is discovered, the board may take evidence pertaining to the conflict, and if appropriate, adjourn to a short deliberative session to address the conflict.
4. The board may adjourn the proceedings to a time certain if, after a recusal, it may not be possible to take action through the concurrence of a majority of the board. The board may then resume the proceeding with sufficient members present.

~~C. If the board decides that further action is warranted, the board may admonish the offending board member at an open meeting and reflect this action in the minutes of the meeting. The board member shall be given the opportunity to respond to the admonishment.~~

~~D. Upon majority vote, the board may request that the offending board member resign from the board.~~

TOWN OF STARKSBORO

INTERESTED PERSON INFORMATION SHEET

Who are interested persons?

Interested persons are those persons who, under Vermont law, have the right to appeal an act or decision of the [insert name of Town] zoning administrator or DRB. Interested persons include:

- The applicant or, if the applicant does not own the subject property, the person owning title to property.
- A municipality that has a plan or bylaw at issue in an appeal, or any municipality adjoining that municipality.
- A person owning or occupying property in the immediate neighborhood of a property that is the subject of any zoning decision or act who can demonstrate a physical or environmental impact on the person's interest under the criteria reviewed, and who alleges that the decision or act, if confirmed, will violate the municipal plan or bylaw.
- Any ten persons, either voters or landowners, who, by signed petition to the DRB, allege that the decision or act, if confirmed, will violate the municipal plan or bylaw. The petitioners must designate one person to serve as their representative.
- Any department or administrative subdivision of the State owning property within the municipality, and the Agency of Commerce and Community Development.

Why is interested person status important?

Though many members of the public may be interested in a zoning permit application, only statutorily-defined interested persons may appeal a decision of a zoning administrator or DRB. If an interested person fails to make a timely appeal, all interested persons are bound by the officer's or DRB decision or act.

Interested persons must participate in a hearing to protect their appeal rights.

Only those interested persons who have participated in a DRB proceeding may appeal a decision rendered in that proceeding to the Environmental Court. Pursuant to State statute, participation consists of offering, through oral or written testimony, evidence or a statement of concern related to the subject of the proceeding.
